

HOW BUSINESSES CAN BENEFIT FROM AI AGENTS

More and more businesses are considering adopting AI agents to improve productivity and efficiency – and research shows that they're onto something!

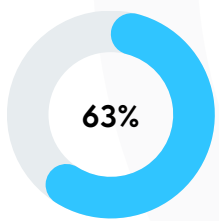

The use of AI agents

71% of organisations agree that AI agents will help drive higher levels of automation in workflows

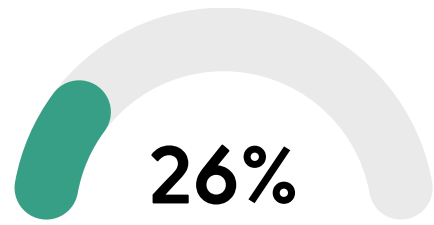

82% of organisations are planning to use them in the next three years, while 10% are already using them

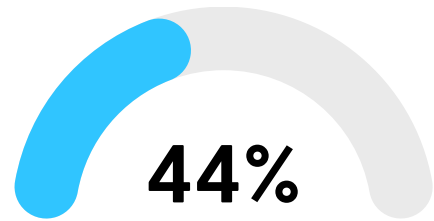

63% of organisations would trust an AI agent to analyse and synthesise data

Source: Cap Gemini

AI agents are on the rise

McKinsey projects that AI agents are predicted to boost global GDP by 26% by 2030

PwC surveys show 44% of business leaders have seen increased productivity through the use of AI

AI agents...

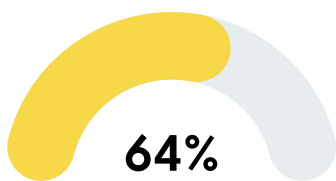

...help 37% of employees report better collaboration with team members

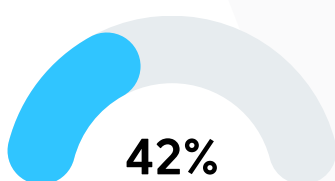

...help 38% of workers boost their creativity

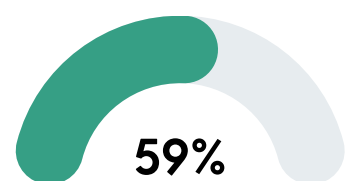

...result in operational cost savings of up to 25% thanks to automating routine tasks and improving process efficiency

64% of business owners expect AI to increase productivity

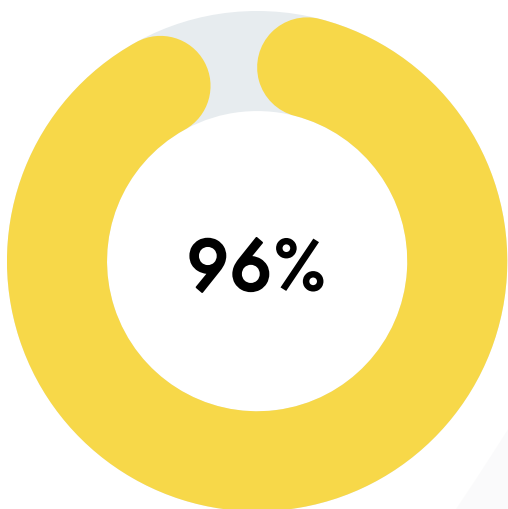

42% of business owners expect AI to streamline job processes

59% of business owners expect AI to save costs

Source: Forbes

AI agent potential

96% of HR leaders believe AI agents can provide personalised L&D opportunities

Increasing productivity

AllaboutAI report companies have reported a 61% increase in productivity due to AI agents automating repetitive tasks

McKinsey report that 90% of companies see a significant improvement in workflow with the use of generative AI agents

Interested in AI agents?
Say hello to Vee

Learn about Vee